Hepatitis C has been called a silent epidemic. Join HepCAP, end the silence.

Wednesday, September 5th
5:30pm - 7pm
Philadelphia Dept. of Public Health
500 S. Broad Street
(Corner of Broad and Lombard)

PLEASE RSVP, FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED!

Please RSVP to Alex Shirreffs at 215-685-6462 or alexandra.shirreffs@phila.gov

HepCAP is a Philadelphia-area collective dedicated to improving the continuum of hepatitis C prevention, care, and support services in Philadelphia.
HepCAP Meeting Agenda: September 2012

- Welcome and Introductions (10 minutes)

- Discussion: HepCAP Activities (30 minutes)
  - Co-Chairs review progress from August’s workgroup calls
    - Public awareness
    - Clinician awareness and education

- Discussion: October Meeting (40 minutes)
  - Goals of October Meeting:
    - Raise awareness about hepatitis C and HepCAP
    - Gain commitment from city leaders to be engaged in the fight against hepatitis C
    - Establish HepCAP as an organization that will make an impact on hepatitis C in Philadelphia
  - Prepare for the meeting to meet these goals
    - Develop a strong agenda
      - Potential Speakers
      - Talking points and areas for discussion
    - Outreach strategy
      - Brainstorming as a group: Who else needs to be in the room to help meet our objectives?
        - Attendees
        - Speakers

- Updates & Announcements (10 minutes)